Directions: You will be given a sample scenario. You will be asked to answer three questions. You have 15 seconds after each question to answer.

Example 1

Situation:
A fitness center is doing a research in your area. You have agreed to participate in an interview about exercise. Do you work out regularly?

Questions:
1. Why do you exercise?
2. What else do you do other than exercise?
3. Describe your favorite exercise.

Example 2

Directions: You will be given a sample scenario. You will be asked to answer three questions. You have 15 seconds after each question to answer.

Situation:
Imagine that you are participating in a shoe store survey.

Questions:
1. What kind of shoes do you like?
2. Do you consider comfort or style?
3. Is there a specific brand that you like?
Example 3

Directions: This section of the test evaluates examinees’ ability to form relevant and complete ideas related to the test content (in addition to the skills found at questions 1 - 3). Examinees will answer three questions based on a scenario (2 short and 1 long). There will be no time to prepare answers. Examinees have 15 seconds to answer questions 4 and 5 and 30 seconds for question 6.

(Narrator): A Hollywood advertising agency is collecting information about movie viewing habits.

You are answering their questions about watching movies over the telephone.

Questions:

4. How often do you watch movies?

5. What kind of movie do you usually watch?

6. Describe your favorite kind of movie?

Example 4

Directions: In this part of the test, you will answer three questions. For each question, begin responding immediately after the question has finished. No preparation time is provided. You will have 15 seconds to respond to Questions 4 and 5 and 30 seconds to respond to Question 6.

Imagine that a North American marketing firm is doing research in your country. You have agreed to participate in a telephone interview about movies.

Questions:

4. When and where did you last watch a movie?

5. What are your favorite kinds of movies?

6. How important is it to monitor the movies that children watch and why?

Example 5
Directions: In this part of the test, you will answer three questions. For each question, begin responding immediately.

Questions:

4. What do the people usually wear at your marketplace or school?

5. How often do you purchase new clothes to wear at work or school?

6. What makes a clothing store a good clothing store?

Example 6

Directions: In this part of the test, you will answer three questions. For each question, begin responding immediately after you hear a beep. No preparation time is provided. You will have 15 seconds to respond to Questions 4 and 5 and 30 seconds to respond to Question 6.

Imagine that a Canadian marketing firm is doing research in your country. You have agreed to participate in a telephone interview about television viewing.

Questions:

4. How often do you watch television?

5. What kinds of programs do you usually watch?

6. Describe your favorite television program.

Example 7
Directions: In this part of the test, you will answer three questions. For each question, begin responding immediately after the question has finished. No preparation time is provided. You will have 15 seconds to respond to Questions 4 and 5 and 30 seconds to respond to Question 6.

Scenario: Imagine that a North American marketing firm is doing research in your country. You have agreed to participate in a telephone interview about movies.

Questions:

4. When and where did you last watch a movie?

5. What are your favorite kinds of movies?

6. How important is it to monitor the movies that children watch and why?

Example 8

Directions: In this part of the test, you will answer three questions. For each questions, begin responding immediately after you hear a beep. No preparation time is provided. You will have 15 seconds to respond to questions 4 and 5 and 30 seconds to respond to question 6.

Scenario: Imagine that a British marketing firm is doing a research in your country. you have agreed to participate in a telephone interview about eating.

Questions:

4. What is your favorite food?

5. How often do you eat in a day?

6. Describe the typical meal you would have for dinner.

Example 9
TOEIC Respond to Questions Examples

Directions: This speaking task consists of 3 questions. No preparation time will be given to you. For questions 4 and 5, you will have 15 seconds in order to reply. For question 6, you will be given 30 seconds to respond. The challenge is being able to comprehend the question immediately, thus being able to answer it right away. The questions will be based on familiar topics. For example, the kinds of questions you might be asked at a job interview. Your response will be evaluated for pronunciation, intonation and stress, grammar, vocabulary, relevance of content, and completeness of content.

Sample: Prompt that you will see is the same for each of the 3 questions:

A student training in the hospitality sector is gathering information from the public for a term paper. Assist him by answering his questions.

Questions:

4. How many vacations from work do you take that are a week or more in length?

5. Do you have a place you go to regularly for a holiday?

6. Tell me about the best vacation you have ever had.

Example 10

Directions: In these questions you will be given a scenario and asked to answer three questions. You will have a preparation time of 0 seconds and a respond time 15 seconds for questions 4 and 5. Then you will get 30 seconds for question 6.

Scenario: A student training to be a teacher is applying for a job at the local library. Assist the student by answering her questions.

Questions:

4. Why do you want to work at the library?

5. How will you balance working and studying?

6. What will you do if we hire you and you don't end up liking the job?
TOEIC Respond to Questions Examples